

2030 Framework Planning Areas

Based on the 2008 Comprehensive Plans Updates

Planning Areas based on 2008 Comprehensive Plan Updates. Not all communities' plans have been adopted as of May 23, 2014.

NOTE: Please refer to the Comprehensive Plans Composite map or the Regional Systems maps for the most recent information. These maps are available at the Metropolitan Council Data Center (651) 602-1140.

| Geographic Planning Areas                                        |  | Additional Information                                                                                                                         |                                                                        |
|------------------------------------------------------------------|--|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Urban Planning AreasDeveloping AreaDeveloped Area |  | Rural Planning AreasRural CenterRural Growth CenterAgriculturalDiversified RuralRural Residential                   |                                                                        |
|                                                                  |  | Regional Natural Resource Areas(includes Terrestrial and Wetland Areas)SOURCE: Metro DNR in coordination with the Metropolitan Council | Regional Trail2030 TransitwaysPrincipal ArterialOpen Water |
|                                                                  |  | Regional Park                                                                                                                                  |                                                                        |