

Transit Capital Levy Communities

Seven County Metro Area
Jan 2013

The Transit Taxing District was statutorily established (Minn. Stat. 473.446) in 2001 as the area of all taxable properties to be assessed for transit and paratransit capital.

Transit Capital Levy Communities include all the communities in the Transit Taxing District AND communities that have come to an agreement with the Metropolitan Council to levy in their community for transit capital.

In 2009, Lakeville was added to the Transit Capital Levy Communities. Forest Lake and Columbus were added in 2010, Maple Plain in 2011 and Ramsey in 2013.

